

Anti-Theft Options for Mobile Devices

The following list is for convenience only. Eagleview Middle School and Academy School District do not endorse, warranty, or recommend any company or system.

We've gathered some links to sites that offer anti-theft applications for mobile devices. If you find another link to add, please forward it to us and we will add it to this list.

Prey

Theft protection software for phones, tablets, and laptops. Three versions available: free, personal (3 devices) and Home (10 devices). Android or IOS.

Cerberus Anti Theft

An anti-theft application for Android devices

Avast

A free app that locates a missing Android phone or tablet.

Lookout

An Android app that combines security and Antivirus protection.

iGotYa

An app for Android and IOS* (*requires jailbreak on Apple) that send you a photo and the location of your phone.

Reviews of Products

An article from The Windows Club reviewing 5 anti-theft laptop recovery software applications for Windows OS. (LAlarm, Prey, LaptopLock, Adeona, and IPFetcher)

An article from MakeUseOf reviewing and comparing 4 anti-theft applications for Android OS. (Lookout, Cerberus, Prey, and Android Lost)

A July 2015 post on AllUsefulInfo that reviews 3 free anti-theft applications for Apple phones and tablets. (Find My iPad, Prey, and SecureIT)

A post from iPhoness reviewing 5 anti-theft apps for Apple products. (Motion Alarm, GotchaPro, Alarm Security All-in-one, Find My iPad, and Immobilizer)

An article from TabletPCReview that not only reviews 6 Anti-Theft appf for iPads, but also explains how these type of apps work. (Find My iPad, Prey, Secure IT, Hidden, Motion Alarm HD, and iLost Finder) Article also offers other tips for safeguarding your device.

